General Business

5/15/08 IICAC minutes:

Moved, Seconded, Carried: Unanimous vote to approve the minutes with the correction that Dr. Wilcox presented at the April Grant-Adams County Annual Conference.

Legislative Update: No report.

Department Updates: No report.

IICAC Subcommittee Reports:

PPQ:

Dr. Lawhead, Chair, reported that the group progressing. They are reviewing appropriate resources to identify a sound clinical base on which to develop practice aids. This work includes developing a format or layout considering an algorithm versus essay styles. They may use a combination of both.

The subcommittee is meeting for one hour phone conferences every two weeks before and after subcommittee meetings. They'll meet in person twice during July and August 2008.

PEO:

Dr. Wilcox, Chair, lead a discussion to clarify the difference between practice aids and tip sheets. The latter puts already existing information into an easy reference format for doctors and their staff. Practice aids, however, will be evidence based directed to the clinician.

Are chiropractic radiologists in the Chiropractic Consultation Program managed by this subcommittee? Yes. This is a Washington program. Provider applications for chiropractic consultants and chiropractic radiologists will be sent to Joanne McDaniel for PEO's review.

Next Meeting:

The IICAC will reconvene on Thursday, September 18, 2008 from 8:30 to 9:00 am. Followed by subcommittee work sessions.

The IICAC will recess during July and August 2008.
